MySQL DBA/Windows 2003 Server Administrator

Title: MySQL DBA/Windows 2003 Server Administrator
Location: Plaza – Kansas City, Missouri
Target Salary: $80,000

JOB DESCRIPTION:

RESPONSIBILITIES:
· Must be able to respond to operational alerts 24/7.
· Responsible for the daily administration of our production database servers and OS.
· Assuring the security of all systems.
· Installs, maintains, and upgrades database software.
· Perform maintenance and upgrade of application schema components and database structures.
· Maintain database backup and recovery environment; verify operation of backup strategy and data integrity.
· Monitor and manage database replication and failover/recovery as needed.
· Run database consistency checks and maintenance procedures and fix as needed.
· Monitor and manage database server performance, availability, capacity and error logs.
· Identify, troubleshoot and resolve real-time database issues.
· Windows administration, security management, patching and performance monitoring.

QUALIFICATIONS:
· On-call availability for emergencies and willingness to work non-standard hours.
· A degree in Computer Science or related field.
· Three or more years relevant experience including implementation, administration and support of production MySQL systems.
· Two or more years of experience as both a database administrator and a Windows 2003 server administrator.
· Experience in designing, implementing, testing and maintaining data replication services, as well as database backup, security and recovery strategies.
· Strong familiarity with database clustering.
· Experience with optimization and troubleshooting techniques to address performance problems on MySQL Server.
· Proficient with Windows operating system security and utilities.
· Experience with MS SQL Server 2005 or Oracle is a strong plus.
· Production IIS/Web administration experience a plus.
· Programming backgrounds in any .NET language a plus.